John Waller

IFCO/Pastors for Peace Cuba Coordinator

A FUNDRAISING EVENT FOR PASTORS FOR PEACE

Cuba Now

John Waller is the current coordinator of the IFCO/Pastors for Peace Friendship Caravans to Cuba, having coordinated 10 such caravans. He was formerly part of the national leadership of the British Cuba Solidarity Campaign before coming to live in the US. He has visited Cuba 15 times since 1991.

He has also worked as a primary care health center manager in both England and the US and has written extensively about Cuba's outstanding approach to delivering quality healthcare to all its citizens.

This year the caravan will participate in the 50 year Anniversary of the death of Che Guevara, view rebuilding efforts in the aftermath of hurricane Matthew and journey to Guantanamo to get a first hand look at the US base and its effect on nearby communities.
